Objective

This year's seminar is intended to inform California physicians, nurses, patients and community members on current trends in sickle cell disease. This year's program features two renown authors that focus on the politics and culture of pain or more specifically, look at in the United States, how the black experience of the body in pain is as much a construction of social, ethical, and economic politics as it is a physiological phenomenon. The highlight of this year's seminar will focus on person's diagnosed with sickle cell disease that are also authors, having written on their own experience as well as a breakout session on journaling.

 PATIENTS THAT REFER A HEALTHCARE PROVIDER WHO ATTENDS THE SEMINAR WILL AUTOMATICALLY BE ENTERED IN A DRAWING FOR AN APPLE IPAD.

Winner to be announced on the last day of the seminar, September 10 2016.
