

8 th annual

Cayenne Wellness Center and Children's Foundation and The Sickle Cell Disease Foundation of California presents

2016 Sickle Cell Disease Educational Seminar: the culture and politics of pain

Keynote Speaker - Friday, September 9, 2016
Stephanie Mulkey Memorial Lecture

Duana Fullwiley, PhD
Stanford University
Department of Anthropology
"The Politics and Culture of Pain"
11:15 am - 12:45 pm

Click Here to View Full Bio

Program at a Glance

The 2016 program is here. Take a look at this year's lineup. You don't want to miss these phenomenal and renown speakers.

Online Registration is now Open

Registration for this years 8th Annual Sickle Cell Disease Educational Seminar is now Open.

DONATE

Invest in the lives of persons currently living with sickle cell disease. Make a tax-deductable donation today. Your donation will help to provide education and support services for persons living with sickle cell disease in California.

Keynote Speaker - Saturday, September 10, 2016
Stephanie Mulkey Memorial Lecture

Debra Walker King, PhD
University of Florida
Department of English
"The Politics and Culture of Pain"
11:15 am - 12:45 pm

Click Here to View Full Bio

STAY CONNECTED

Cayenne Wellness and Children's Foundation
PO Box 3856 • Glendale, CA 91221
818-377-5120 tele • 818-840-9485 fax
info@cayennewellness.org
www.cayennewellness.org

both Cayenne Wellness Center and Children's Foundation and The Sickle Cell Disease Foundation of California are 501c3 Non Profit Organizations

