

Fall 2019; Spring 2020

CAYENNE

Wellness Center and
Sickle Cell Disease Education & Awareness

Public Health Internship and Volunteer Opportunities at

CAYENNE WELLNESS CENTER

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

ABOUT THE VOLUNTEER PROGRAM:

Cayenne Wellness Center works to protect health and promote health and well-being for persons diagnosed with Sickle Cell Disease throughout the state of California. We encourage you to consider being a Public Health Intern or Volunteer where you can make a difference in improving the lives of patients living with Sickle Cell Disease.

ELIGIBILITY:

- Graduate and Undergraduate students with a 3.0 GPA or higher
- Enrolled in a Public Health program at CSU Los Angeles, CSU Northridge, UCLA or USC

POSITIONS AVAILABLE FOR:

- Community Health & Health Education
- Epidemiology and Research
- Health Policy and Management
- Public Administration

TO APPLY, SEND THE FOLLOWING TO:

info@cayennewellness.org

Subject line to read: Public Health Volunteer

- video cover letter
- resume
- summary of interest in this volunteer position

www.cayennewellness.org